VENUS IN FUR PLAYWRIGHT DAVID
IVES WOWS AUDIENCE WITH IMPROMPTU AND INTIMATE POST-PLAY CONVERSATION!

THIS CRITICAL AND POPULAR HIT EXTENDS TWO MORE WEEKS—NOW PLAYING THROUGH JULY 24

“A smart scoopful of fun, a delectably compressed actors’ pas-de-deux.” —The Washington Post

Playwright David Ives delighted Studio Theatre audiences with an informal conversation following the June 18th evening performance of Venus in Fur. Ives spoke at length with The Studio Theatre’s Associate Producing Artistic Director, Serge Seiden, and answered audience questions about his inspiration for the play and his process adapting it.

After finishing and shelving a literal adaptation of Venus in Fur, Ives said, he eventually took the play up again “and tried to make something contemporary, something theatrical, something ambiguous, something compressed and dramatic.” The final result transposes the action of the novella from 1870s Europe to a contemporary rehearsal room, and critics are calling The Studio Theatre’s production “electrifying” and a “rollicking romp.”

Venus in Fur* has extended for two more weeks, now playing through July 24, 2011.

THE STUDIO THEATRE INFORMATION:

The Studio Theatre is Washington's premiere venue for contemporary theatre, "where local audiences will find today's edgiest playwrights" (Variety). Founded in 1978 by Joy Zinoman, the theatre is in its first season under the leadership of Artistic Director David Muse. Muse is joined by Keith Alan Baker, Managing Director/Artistic Director, 2ndStage; Serge Seiden, Associate Producing Artistic Director; and Morey B. Epstein, Executive Director of Institutional Development.

One of the most respected mid-sized theatres in the country, The Studio Theatre produces the work of today's greatest writers, augmented by occasional productions of modern classics, performed by acclaimed actors in intimate spaces. Studio's programming, while purposefully eclectic, emphasizes plays of sophistication and style with true literary and theatrical merit. The six plays of The Studio Theatre Season form the core of its work, and are complemented by its Special Events, which bring unique performances and one-of-a-kind events to Washington DC, and the rawer, frequently irreverent productions of The Studio 2ndStage. Housed in a landmark complex that anchors the 14th Street Arts District, each of Studio's four theatres seats fewer than 225 patrons, giving Studio productions their signature intimacy. Throughout the Theatre's 33-year history, the quality of its work has been recognized by sustained community support as well as with 267 nominations and 54 Helen Hayes Awards for excellence in professional theatre. In addition, The Studio Theatre Acting Conservatory has trained over 10,000 students, many of whom have gone on to acclaimed careers across the country. A premiere cultural organization in Washington DC, The Studio Theatre serves more than 75,000 people annually and is proud to make a vital contribution to its neighborhood and city.
