THE STUDIO THEATRE EXTENDS BUST, SOLO SHOW BY FORMER DAILY SHOW CORRESPONDENT LAUREN WEEDMAN

“A near-hysterical comic riff.” —Washingtonian
“Anna Deveare Smith on speed.” —DC Theatre Scene

Bust

written and performed by Lauren Weedman directed by Allison Narver
now playing in Stage 4 extended to December 23!

“If Lauren Weedman is an acquired taste,” writes Peter Marks of The Washington Post, “I’ve acquired it.” He isn’t alone. Due to overwhelming demand, The Studio Theatre is extending its first Special Event of the season. Lauren Weedman’s hilarious one-woman show Bust will now run through December 23.

Bust is comedian Lauren Weedman’s mostly autobiographical play based on her experiences working as a volunteer advocate in a Southern California prison for women. Weedman’s job is to listen, but talking is what she does best, with occasionally disastrous and frequently hilarious results. She plays dozens of characters, switching from prostitute to parole officer, addict to editor with nuance and empathy. With one foot in Hollywood and the other in jail, the former Daily Show correspondent careens wildly between the two worlds, taking us on a poignant, entertaining, and completely unforgettable ride.

Lauren Weedman is a comedic actress, playwright, and author. Her other works include Rash, Wreckage, Homecoming, and No... You Shutup (aka Off). Her television credits include The Daily Show, Reno 911, HBO’s Hung, Bravo’s The Great Things About Being..., VH1’s Best Week Ever, Curb Your Enthusiasm, and Talk Show with Spike Fereststein. Film credits include Imagine That and Date Night. Weedman is currently developing a pilot for The Fox Network based on her collection of comedic essays, A Woman Trapped in a Woman’s Body: Tales from a Life of Cringe.

THE STUDIO THEATRE INFORMATION:

The Studio Theatre is Washington's premiere venue for contemporary theatre, "where local audiences will find today's edgiest playwrights" (Variety). Founded in 1978 by Joy Zinoman, Studio Theatre is in its second season under the leadership of Artistic Director David Muse. Muse is joined by Keith Alan Baker, Managing Director/Artistic Director, 2ndStage; Serge Seiden, Associate Producing Artistic Director; and Morey B. Epstein, Executive Director of Institutional Development.

One of the most respected mid-sized theatres in the country, The Studio Theatre produces the work of today's greatest writers, augmented by occasional productions of modern classics, performed by acclaimed actors in intimate spaces. Studio's programming, while purposefully eclectic, emphasizes plays of sophistication and style with true literary and theatrical merit. The five plays of The Studio Theatre Season form the core of its work, and are complemented by its Special Events, which bring unique performances and one-of-a-kind events to Washington DC; the rawer, frequently irreverent productions of The Studio 2ndStage; and the Studio Lab, in its inaugural season, which is dedicated to stripped-down productions of invigorating new work. Housed in a landmark complex that anchors the 14th Street Arts District, each of Studio's four theatres seats fewer than 225 patrons, giving Studio productions their signature intimacy. Throughout the Theatre's 34-year history, the quality of its work has been recognized by sustained community support as well as with 271 nominations and 55 Helen Hayes Awards for excellence in professional theatre. In addition, The Studio Theatre Acting Conservatory has trained over 10,000 students, many of whom have gone on to acclaimed careers across the country. A premiere cultural organization in Washington DC, The Studio Theatre serves more than 75,000 people annually and is proud to make a vital contribution to its neighborhood and city.
